KPFK FOLIO

REPORT TO THE LISTENER

Tabaru Betserai

As the new General Manager of KPFK, I am excited to be a part of my new family of friends and co-workers. This position represents the culmination of years of personal growth but most importantly historical growth. Having been associated with the Pacifica Foundation for the past 13 years, I have participated in many of the changes and struggles which have characterized this organization. It is clear that institutions and individuals alike must continue to grow and change. Sometimes we accept that change willingly and sometimes we get kicked and jostled along the path against our will. But change we must. I have come to appreciate and sometimes painfully so, the slow, but nonetheless, continual progress the Pacifica Foundation has made over the years but always recognizing its vital role in serving as a voice for the underserved, for the call of peace and for the promotion of understanding among all races.

There is however, still much work to be done towards adequately addressing the needs of the diverse multi-ethnic communities and specifically dealing with such questions as racism and sexism and its subsequent reflection in programming on the air or the lack thereof. There are questions of modernization and our need to continually upgrade our environment technically as well as systematic plans for skills enhancement. And there is the constant need to place KPFK on a sound financial footing to enable us to secure the resources both human and material to engineer us into our rightful place of leadership in free speech radio. I believe that the current staff has a genuine desire to meet these needs and to protect this vitally important resource we have in KPFK. To that end it will provide a tremendous amount of support in my new role as General Manager and make my tenure here at the station a positive and productive one, however long or short.

1987 marks the beginning of a new and hopefully successful year for KPFK and from January 4th to January 17th we will conduct the first of three fundraising drives of the year. Listener support accounts for close to 75% of the station's total revenue which means that we will need your support to clear every hurdle. Our fundraising goal for January fund drive is $150,000. The success of the last two fundraising drives have helped stabilize the station but we must continue moving towards a full and complete financial recovery. To all of our listeners who have supported the station during the ups and downs of 1986, I would like to extend my Thank You's on behalf of the entire staff, programmers and volunteers.

Our fund drive theme for January is The Earth Resolving To Keep it Revolving—and provided below is a menu of some of the special program offerings you will be able to hear during those two weeks.

- In the Beginning: A Native American Woman's View
- Frank Lloyd Wright at Berkeley
- Life and Death of the Imperial Hotel
- Outstairs and Instairs (Buckminster Fuller)
- Why Men Like War
- A Memory of Hiroshima
- Walking Tour of the Hiroshima Peace Museum

* Please note that in the program listings these special offerings as well as our regularly scheduled programming which reflects the fund drive theme is highlighted in grey. Please note also time changes of some programs and preemptions due to special programming around the fund drive theme.

There are a myriad of tasks and responsibilities involved in putting on our subscription drive. Any interested listeners who would be willing to work during the January fund drive would be greatly appreciated. To volunteer please contact the station during regular business hours at (818) 985-2711. We intend to make this fund drive a success with your help.

- We need people to answer the phones.
- We need people to provide general office and clerical support.
- We need people to do filling and processing of the pledges.
- We need food donations during the fund drive.

Lastly, I would like to extend a warm and loving farewell to Pacifica Radio's Chief Executive Officer, Sharon Maeda who left the foundation at the end of December. Sharon has been a stalwart figure in her six year tenure as C.E.O. She was the first minority and woman to hold that position in Pacifica Radio's history and she tirelessly worked as an advocate for change within the foundation and public radio nationally. Sharon helped build Pacifica Radio into a healthy organization financially and her contributions will long be remembered. We wish her well in her future work. Also we would like to welcome the newly elected KPFF advisory board members. Chairman: Bernard Nicolas, Vice Chairman: Charles McClung, Correspondence Secretary/Treasurer: Charles Burle, Secretary: Nola Lamkin, and National Representatives, Ron Wilkins and Ellie Schnitzer. We look forward to working with them all. And to all of our listeners we wish you a happy and productive 1987.
